Dedication

To our Miss Harper, the 1938 McKENDREAN is dedicated. It is her spirit that inspires love and admiration in all who know her. When one thinks of Miss Harper, one thinks of Music of which it has been said:

"Servant and Master am I. . . Through my spirit immortals speak the message that makes the world weep and laugh, and wonder and worship. . . For I am the instrument of God. I am Music."

CLARK R. YOST, A.B., D.D.

President

*"To be alive in such an age!
To live in it! To give in it!
Rise, soul, from thy despairing knees.
Give thanks and clasp thy heritage—
To be alive in such an age!"*

ANGELA MORGAN.

To those who have in any way been associated with Dr. Yost in the three years that he has been with us, surely this challenge has been given a new meaning. He has shown by his life the true meaning of the term "Christian Gentleman."

W. C. WALTON, Ph.D., D.D.

Treasurer

Dr. W. C. Walton, who has served so long and faithfully as instructor in the department of Philosophy and Religion, is continuing his service to McKendree by filling the position of Treasurer of the College.

CHARLES J. STOWELL, Ph.D.

Dean

Dr. Stowell, in this his first year as Dean of McKendree College, has carried the same thoroughness, so typical of his classroom work, into the administrative duties of his new office. Many students have this year been associated with him who otherwise would not have been privileged to know him and gain the benefit of his many years of experience in working with college students.

EDWIN P. BAKER

B.A., M.A., LL.D.

*"Tending towards moral virtue was his speche,
And gladly wolde he lerne, and gladly teche."*

CHAUCER.

A life which has been lived as has Dean Baker's—in almost reverent dedication to the understanding of youth and its problems—has left an indelible mark upon all who have known him. One cannot know Dean Baker, even casually, and not be influenced by the beauty of a soul which lives with God.

Clark Hall, Sept. 8, 1937.

Dear Bun:

Well, I'm here. Arrived last night and after stalking through the "tall timbers" for ten minutes and barging into couples on green benches here and there who gave directions I finally hit the Dorm. Talk about activity!

The girls are awfully nice. I'm on third and they tell me my room is the envy of the house—it's the last one on the north side on the west end. I can't quite figure it out myself.

Today I registered. There were two things I wanted: French and Shakespeare. You want to know what I got? I'll tell you. This is a rough idea of what happened:

6:15—I am awakened by the most terrific noise I ever heard. They tell me it's someone trying to blow the bugle for rising. Imagine! In the middle of the night!

6:45—Same bugle—it's time for breakfast now. I turn over and go to sleep again.

9:30—I saunter over into the office and begin to register. I must see Dr. Yost, they say. I don't want to see Dr. Yost, but they say I must. So, I get a number—96. What does it mean? Nothing, only I am the 96th person to approach the President. What number is in there now? Hmmm, number 6.

10:00—I have secured a long series of attached cards to fill in and I triumphantly charge the office force again. Number 11 is in now.

10:30—The English Head is my adviser. She says I can't take Shakespeare—I want to take Shakespeare, so-o-o, I take Freshman Rhetoric. I must take Biology—you know, worms, and things. She puts a few more courses down; I really don't care as long as I get to take French.

11:50—I can't take French, because I have to take History at the same time I want to take French. I don't want History, but, I take History.

12:00—I take my wilted card and again crash the office force. What number's in now? 32!! What's more it's twelve o'clock, and the President is going home. So, I go home, too.

1:15—I'm back again, all ready for the second round. I must take Bible—I can't graduate without Bible.

2:30—Well, well, they're up to number 47 now.

3:30—Number 62!

4:30—Number 78. My cards and questionnaires have been filled out and held in my hot and nervous hands so long, that the ink has run all over the place. I can't tell now whether my answer to "Do you need deferred payment?" was "yes" or "gas".

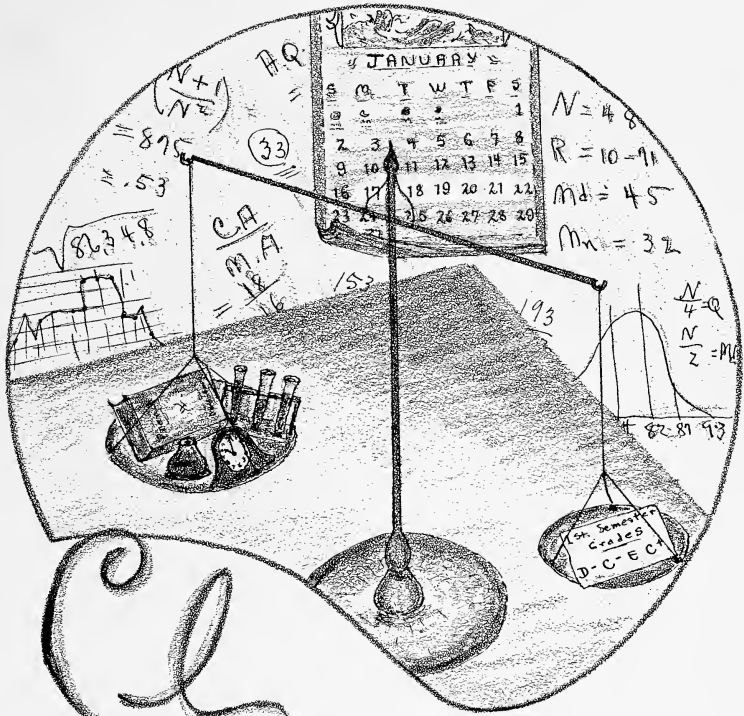

5:30—Number 86. . . .

6:30—Number 95!! The President has to quit sometime today, so he quits at number 95. He goes home for dinner. (I go crazy—I haven't a nail left.)

Yours,

CHATTY.

P. S. I got to go to Chapel, too. I don't want . . . Oh, well, what's the use?

Classes

A Senior to His Alma Mater

Four years, they tell us 'tis four years,—
Upon the face of calendar and by the stars, perhaps,
But surely 'tis but yesterday we came,
Just yesterday we saw your drowsy trees,
Quiet, slow-swaying, in September's idle breeze;
First walked upon your cool, green carpet,
Heard your chapel bell
Peal out its self-same message as in years ago.

We were so care-free, were so gay,
We had four years in which to learn and play—
Four long, long, most interminable years
To somehow worry through before we could depart,
Four years of study, work, and mayhap, tears.

Slowly they began, dragging weary feet at times, perchance,
Those years,
Then gradually their pace quickened, they began to march,
This march became a quickstep, then broke into a run,
And now—they have taken to themselves wings—and we are at the end.

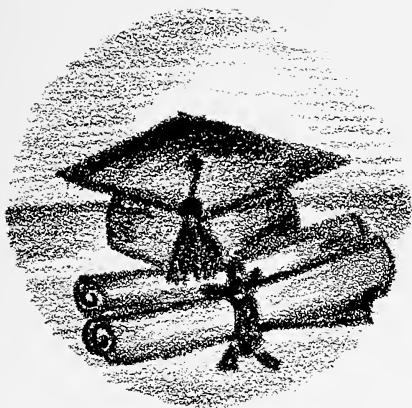

What have we done? Oh, this and that—
Made friendships, broadened horizons, we hope,
Sloughed off old, useless prejudices,
Opened new vistas, gained a clearer view,
Retained much that is old, and added new.

Is there a place for us when we fare forth?
We hope, we somehow do believe there is,
If we have shaped ourselves to fit into the scheme of things.
But we shall see,
Yes, we shall see.

But we shall go with lagging feet from you,
Just as we came with lagging feet, perhaps, four years ago.
And you shall hold forever in our heart of hearts, a shrine,
At which, from time to time, Memory will pause awhile,
To burn a bit of incense sweet to you.

Four years—they tell us 'tis four years.

—ALLEN WILSON.

Senior Class

We entered McKendree in '34, one of the largest classes of typically green Freshmen of recent years. In looking back over these four short years, one of necessity remembers the green caps, the victorious freshman fight, our first college Homecoming, and our first college commencement. The Sophomore and Junior years passed quickly, bringing with them their joys—and sorrows. We at last reached the dignified state of Seniors and, all too soon, our own Commencement Day arrived.

It is with a note of joy and sorrow that we leave our Alma Mater, hoping in some way we have made it a little better, and that we will be worthy of its ideals.

Dear Bun:

Well, I met him! Seating lists in the dining hall changed last week, and suddenly—there he was! He smiled, and I came up for air long enough to smile back at him. That was last Monday. This is Sunday!! Why didn't I land him? Well, it's a long series of strategies, but here goes:

Monday noon—(after that smile) I get the "lo—vel—y" weather safely decided and agreed upon, then suggest I have not seen the Country Club. He says he'd be tickled pink to take me—some time—only this afternoon he has to work on the Review (he's editor, or something), and then, after that, he has football practice.

Monday evening—(another much larger smile) I say I've heard that the moon was almost as bright as the sun for seeing things. He thinks a moment, then remembers that his Philo literary society meets. I say I don't mind going later, but after that he has Bachelor Fraternity meeting. And, of course, we must be in when the clock strikes ten!

Tuesday noon—(I never get up for breakfast) He says he has football practice all afternoon.

Tuesday evening—Bless his heart! He's in the glee club, too—rehearsal, 7 to 8. At 8, he has play practice; belongs to some traveling troupe or something (he's in this because he can act).

Wednesday noon—(still smiling) This afternoon, he has Sigma Tau Delta meeting, writing fraternity (he's editor, remember?). And, of course, football.

Wednesday evening—(I try new perfume tonight) He can't take a walk because Y. M. C. A. meets right after dinner. Then he has Alpha Psi Omega meeting for their Fall Festival (he's in this 'cause he's in the Players troupe 'cause he can act!).

Thursday noon—(smile is growing more feeble) All afternoon—football! You'd think they'd wear the thing out.

Thursday evening—My stars! Glee club meets twice a week! Tonight again, 7 to 8. Little Theatre meets as soon as they can chase the Glee Club out (he's in this 'cause he's in Alpha Psi 'cause he's in the Players 'cause he can act! See?).

Friday noon—(weakening to a grin) Football . . .

Friday evening—This travelling troupe, McKendree Players, gives a performance tonight at Belleville. (He's in this 'cause—Oh, well, skip it! I'm all mixed up.)

Saturday noon—(only a sigh) Football. . . "M" Club meeting to decide on a football Queen contest for Homecoming.

Saturday evening—I quit! He's going to a party—a stay party of the Bachelors. Could it be he doesn't like me?

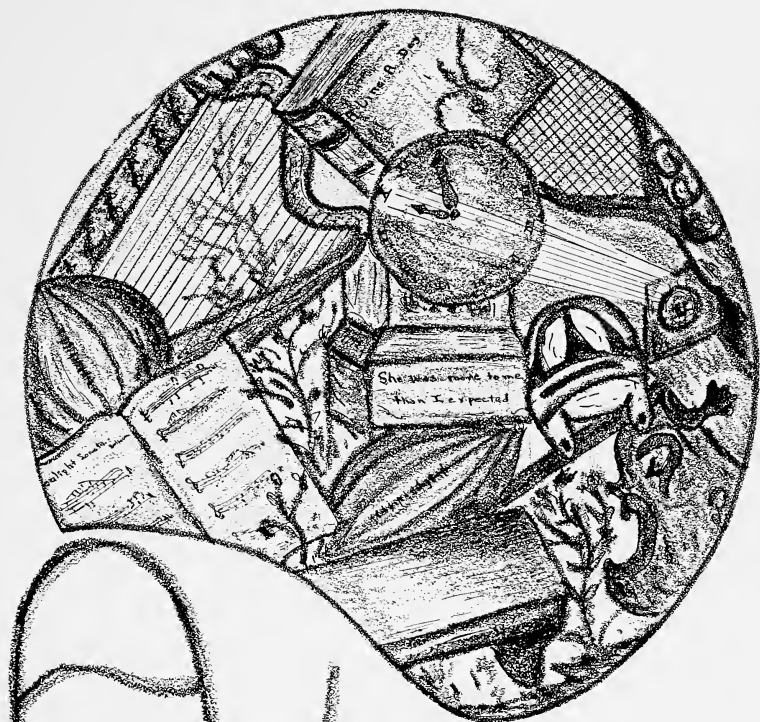

Sunday noon—(I got no smile, I got no grin, I got no sigh,—I got nothin'!) Tonight he goes to Epworth League and Church!

So, here I sit, crying, wounded to the quick, trying to piece together the wreck that activities have made of my life. But experience comes quickly. Next, I pick me a good-looking moron who's too dumb to do anything!

Love,

CHATTY.

P. S. I would have answered your letter sooner, but I've been rehearsing every afternoon and evening on the Homecoming Play.

After a mediocre season last year, the Bearcats came back with a rush and made a better showing than anticipated by their most ardent followers. Handicapped by the lack of reserve material, the Purple and White presented a scrappy bunch who never knew when to quit fighting. To this fact may be laid much of the season's success.

They opened the season by upsetting the powerful North Central team, holding them to a scoreless tie. The Purple then registered their first conference win in two years by trouncing Eureka 14-0. After losing to Chillicothe, McKendree lost a heart-breaker to SINU. Leading all the way, the Bearcats tired in the last few minutes of play and dropped the decision. Coming back with a vengeance, the gridders walloped Oakland City in the Homecoming Game 52-0 one of the high scores of the nation. The next two battles were lost to St. Viator and Rose Poly. A victory over Shurtleff completed the win column. The last game of the season was lost to Illinois College.

Three men were selected for All-Conference honors: Wayne Bise was named on the Internatioanl News Service Second Team, while Captain Isselhardt and Malcom Randall were given Honorable Mention on the same All-Conference Team. Bise and Randall also were given Honorable Mention on the Associated Press All-Star Selection.

HUNDRED THIRTY-EIGHT

WAYNE BISE, Senior, Olmstead

INS All-Star Selection Second Team; Associated Press Honorable Mention; Voted Most Valuable Man; Three-Year Letterman.

Bise ended his gridiron career with a great year. He was one of the best ends McKendree has had. An excellent pass-receiver, a good defensive man, and a good blocker, he was always dangerous. His shoes will be hard to fill next year.

"Wayne Bise turned in a great performance at end."—East St. Louis Journal.

"On the first play Ward passed to Bise for the touchdown."—Belleville Daily Advocate.

"The play of Wayne Bise was again outstanding."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

FRED DOERNER, Junior, St. Louis

Tackle; Co-Captain-elect; Two-Year Letterman.

"Bull" is one of the men who will lead the Bearcats next year. He is strong on defense, fast on offense, and is a mainstay in the forward wall.

"Bull Doerner, a 200-pound tackle, has been one of the main cogs in the Bearcat grid machine."—Belleville Daily Advocate.

"Doerner played his best game of the season, stopping everything that came his way."—East St. Louis Journal.

MALCOM RANDALL, Junior, E. St. Louis

Guard; Co-Captain-elect; INS All-Star Selection Honorable Mention; Associated Press All-Star Selection Honorable Mention. Three-Year Letterman.

Randall, as guard, missed only two minutes of play during the season. He was a tower of strength in the Bearcat line.

"Malcom Randall, a tiny watch charm guard, is establishing an iron man tradition at McKendree, not having missed a minute of play this season."—Chicago Daily News.

"He only tips the scales at 155 but he's all wool and a mile wide, and if Coach Blanchard can line up a few boys with the same courage, the Bearcats may go places next year. Mal Randall is expected to become a fine leader for the 1938 McKendree eleven."—Bloomington Pantagraph.

DON WARD, Freshman, Collinsville

Halfback; First-Year Letterman.

"Slingin' Don" Ward made a reputation with his passing ability. His dangerous heaves kept McKendree in the ball game and resulted in many scores.

"Don Ward was slingin' the pigskin high, wide and handsome."—E. St. Louis Journal.

SOL ERNST, Senior, E. St. Louis

Center; Two-Year Letterman.

Although hampered by injuries the greater part of the season, Sol was very valuable to the Bearcats. His accurate passing and heady defensive work were important factors in the Bearcat machine.

"Sol Ernst played almost the entire game at the pivot position and turned in a good performance."—E. St. Louis Journal.

GEORGE HANDLON, Sophomore, Edwardsville

Guard; First-Year Letterman.

Handlon was the other watch-harem guard and missed very few minutes of play. A fighter, he was a terror on defense and continually smashed plays. George made the Illinois College all-opponent team.

"George Handlon turned in a great defensive game."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

"Handlon has not missed a minute of play so far this season."—Chicago Daily News.

"Handlon of Edwardsville, starred on defense."—Belleville Daily Advocate.

ELMER WEBER, Freshman, Belleville

Tackle, First Year Letterman.

When aroused, "Bud" was hard to stop. His best game was against St. Viator when he stopped the hard-running Saint attack cold.

"Weber was a lion on defense."—Belleville Daily Advocate.

JOHN HARMON, Sophomore, Lebanon

End, First Year Letterman.

"Ace" saw quite a bit of action in his first season of actual play. He played great games against Shortleff and I. C.

"Harmon played a great game, slashing through continually to grab ball-carriers."—E. St. Louis Journal.

DOYLE DONHAM, Senior, Ridgway

Tackle; First Year Letterman.

In his first year of competition "Red" held down a regular berth. Big and strong, he turned in a fine season on the line.

"Donham recovered three fumbles."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

"Randall kicked off and the receiver was dropped in his tracks by Donham."—Belleville Daily Advocate.

CHARLES LONG, Freshman, Granite City

Halfback; First Year Letterman.

"Scud" was used mostly at blocking back, but did some fine ball lunging against Eureka. He also handled some of the kicking duties this year.

"Long fought his way to the 2-yard line."—E. St. Louis Journal.

MILTON SAGER, Sophomore, Mt. Vernon

Center and Tackle; First Year Letterman.

Sager was invaluable the past season. He worked equally well at center and tackle, doing great work at both posts. He is big and aggressive and loves the game.

"Sager was on top of play all afternoon."—E. St. Louis Journal.

KELLEY SIMMONS, Sophomore, Wood River

Halfback; First Year Letterman.

"Kel" was one of the shiftest broken field runners on the squad. He demonstrated this against Oakland City. His future looks promising, and he should develop into a valuable man.

CAPTAIN BERNARD ISSELHARDT, Junior, Belleville

Quarterback; INS All-Star Selection Honorable Mention; Two Year Letterman.

Benny proved a real leader, his signal-calling showing his coolness under fire. He was also leading scorer of the Bearcats.

"Capt. Isselhardt plunged over for the first touchdown of the season."—E. St. Louis Journal.

"Isselhardt is being hoomed by scribes for All-Conference honors."—Chicago Daily News.

"Capt. Isselhardt kicked the longest field goal in the conference on a snow-covered field."—Chicago Daily News.

ARTHUR MARTIN, Sophomore, Cypress

Fullback; First Year Letterman.

Art didn't get going till the last of the season, when he played bang-up ball. Big and tough, Art was hard to hurt.

"Martin, with an exhibition of sheer dive, went over the goal line."—E. St. Louis Journal.

ED POSAGE, Freshman, E. St. Louis

Fullback; First Year Letterman.

Big Ed was one of the reasons for McKendree's success on the gridiron. One of the best kickers in the conference, he got off several kicks of over 70 yards.

MARVIN BUTLER, Sophomore, E. St. Louis

Quarterback, First Year Letterman.

"Marv" didn't get much chance to show his wares, substituting for Capt. Isselhardt. When he was in there, however, he made his presence known by his tackling.

KENNETH ATKINS, Sophomore, E. St. Louis

Halfback; Two Year Letterman.

BART GREENWOOD, Freshman, West Frankfort

End; First Year Letterman.

Bart came to college without previous high experience in the game and landed a regular job. His work was always steady and dependable.

"Greenwood again turned in a good performance at end."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

HAROLD SHIPP, Sophomore, Sea Bright, N. J.

Center; First Year Letterman.

Shipp was bothered with a knee injury but was valuable when he was in the line-up. A conscientious worker, he should go far.

Basketball Squad

Back Row—W. Phillips, B. Isselhardt, J. Harmon, R. Carson, B. Greenwood, Coach Blanchard.

While this year's edition of the Bearcats was not so successful in the won and lost column, the Purple and White have a season behind them of which they may be proud.

Coach Blanchard's hardwood crew really stepped into the "big time" and played teams far over their heads. In meeting Western State from Kentucky and Western State from Michigan, McKendree opposed two of the finest basketball teams in the country.

In addition to the six major awards, five minor awards were given to those who did not quite qualify for a letter. Among these were Benny Isselhardt, who was Blanchard's first substitute throughout the season; Doyle Donham, who closes his career by the graduation route; Wendell Phillips, who also leaves via graduation; Bart Greenwood, a freshman with promise; and Dick Carson, another freshman who bids fair to develop into a valuable man.

In the eyes of all concerned the basketball season of 1937-1938 was one of the most successful in recent years.

Basketball Lettermen

EDWARD JONES, Sophomore, Mound City
Guard; Two Year Letterman.

"Bud" was one of the strongest reserves called upon by Coach Blanchard. He performed at all posts and gave a good account of himself at all of them. He has one of the easiest shots on the squad and knows the game thoroughly. He came along rapidly at the end of the season and will fill a breach in the ranks next year.

JOHN HENDERSON, Sophomore, Thebes
Guard; First Year Letterman.

"Jumbo" came up from the intra-mural ranks to win a regular berth on the varsity in his first year of competition. A good defensive man, he left most of the scoring to the other members of the team. Henderson has plenty of scrap and always fought till the last minute. With a year's competition behind him, he should develop into a star.

JOHN HARMON, Sophomore, Lebanon
Forward; Two Year Letterman.

"Ace" was third in the scoring column for the Bearcats. Serving as a substitute his first year, Harmon came back to clinch a regular berth. Big and strong, he could shoot with both hands equally well. Ace usually came through with his baskets when they were most needed. He scored most of his points with his famous pivot shot from near the free throw circle. With two more years to go, Harmon should develop into a brilliant man before he finishes his career.

DON WARD, Freshman, Collinsville
Guard; First Year Letterman.

Don came to McKendree from Collinsville with a great reputation as a basketball player. He upheld the critics by living up to his reputation. Never a high scorer, Don was in his element on the defense. His quick, lightning movements broke up many offensive threats. He carried his passing ability from the gridiron and was responsible for many scores with his long passes down the floor.

CAPT. WAYNE BISE, Senior, Olmstead
Center; Four Year Letterman.

With the passing of Wayne Bise, McKendree loses one of her basketball immortals. Always steady and dependable, he could have played on almost any college team in the country. One of the best rebounders in this area, Wayne was a continual threat to opponents. For the second straight year he led all scoring, amassing 224 points in 17 games. Bise was also at the top of the heap in free throws garnered in the conference.

ROY JAECKEL, Junior, New Athens
Forward; Four Year Letterman.

Jaeckel again proved to be a tower of strength to the Bearcats. One of the best ball handlers in recent McKendree basketball history, Roy was a hard man to stop. His fire and love of the game make him a great player. Jaeckel was second to Bise in the scoring column, accounting for 158 points in 17 games. Roy will close his basketball career under the Purple and White next year, being eligible until February. He will be of great value to Coach Blanchard for the time that he is available.

McKendree _____ OF NINETEEN

With eight lettermen returning for the season, the Purple and White track team had a strong nucleus around which to build the cinder squad. The lettermen from the past season were: Wayne Bise, senior hurdler; Carl Davis, senior miler; Mal Randall, junior sprinter; Myrl Herman, sophomore middle distance man; Bob Langenwalter, sophomore miler; George Handlon, sophomore pole vaulter; John Harmon, sophomore javelin ace; and Art Martin, sophomore weight man.

In addition to these the following rounded out the squad: Ed Thilman, Bart Greenwood, Lester Hickman, Don Ward, Charles Long, Dale Broom, Wendell Phillips, George Pimlott, Roy Griebel, Fred Doerner and Lisle Mewmaw.

The Freshmen again won the Inter-Class meet, nosing out the Sophomores. The Seniors and Juniors brought up the rear.

The Bearcats closed strong last season and pulled the unexpected by winning the Quadrangular meet at The Principia. They continued their good work this season and piled up a successful record. In the light of the bad weather and continued handicaps preventing the cinder-men from getting in shape, the track squad should be congratulated on their splendid work.

The schedule for the season follows. All meets were held on Hypes Field.

April 30—The Principia.

May 7—Concordia.

May 14—Quadrangular Meet: Blackburn, The Principia,
Shurtleff, McKendree.

May 21—Quadrangular Meet: Milliken, Concordia, Shurtleff,
McKendree.

Varsity Softball

Varsity softball, a new sport, came into the limelight at McKendree this year. The Bearcats played a shortened but successful schedule. With excellent material on hand, the Purple and White put a classy team on the field. This team proved hard to stop.

Those men returning from the championship team of last year which trounced Shurtleff in extra innings 4-3 were: Roy Jaeckel, Malcom Randall, Benny Isselhardt, George Handlon, Fred Doerner, Al Manis, and John Harmon. Several newcomers were added to the squad this year. Most promising of these were: Wayne Bise, Charles Hortin, Myrl Herman, Art Martin, Don Ward, Bart Greenwood.

At present, plans are in the making for forming an intercollegiate league in this area.

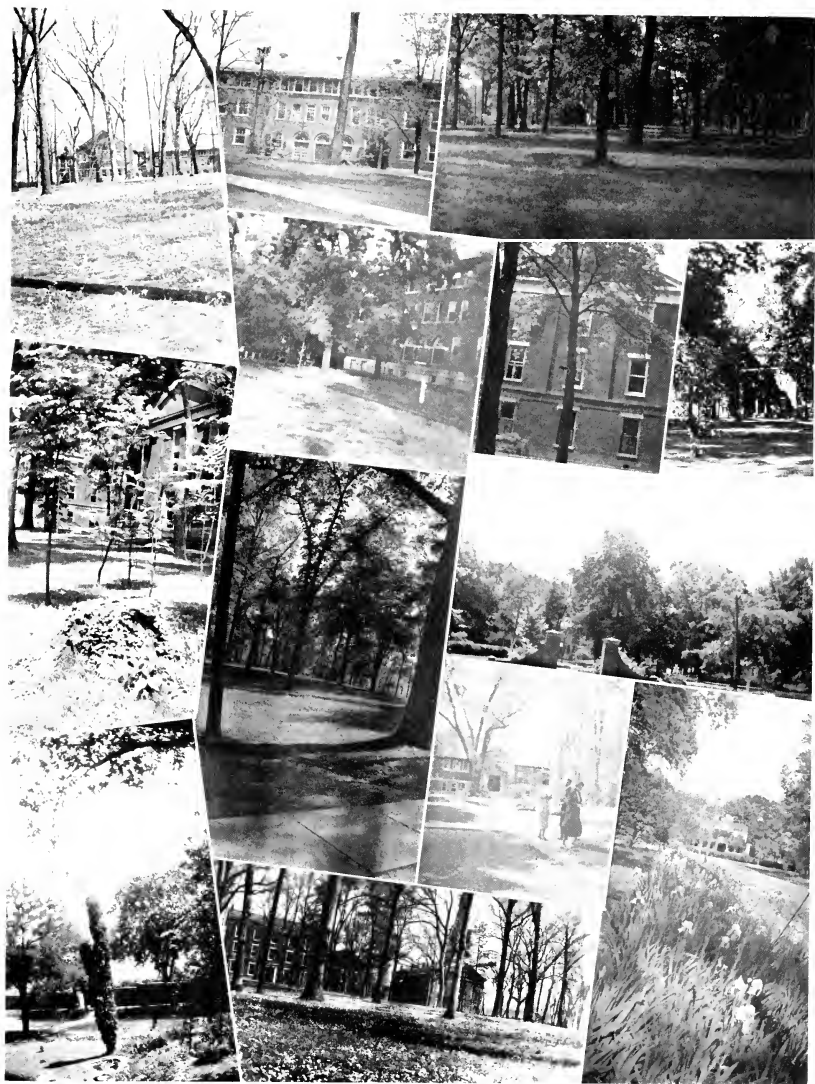

Intramurals

The Intramural activities, always interesting, proved very spirited and lively this year. In basketball two leagues were formed, playing twice a week. The Sophomores won the Class League and Joe's Boys were victorious in the Independent League.

In the Softball League the champion A.M.O. team was the favorite, with the Bachelors given an outside chance of winning. Four teams made up the league: A.M.O.'s, Bachelors, Allen's Aces, and Bohm's Bombers. Games were played twice a week under the flood-lights.

Calendar

In the crystal depths of magic

Wise magicians read the future, soft and dim;

Now the crystal ball turns backward,

And its softly glowing colors sway and swim.

As the past reveals its pleasures,

Do not sigh for things forgotten,—only smile,

And remember that remembrance

Is life's golden compensation for each mile.

September...

See, the crystal ball is spinning,

And September's skein of colors lies unfurled,—

Crimson from the autumn hill-tops,

And the golden threads of sunlight dew-impregnated

Sept. 6-8—Registration for McKendree's one hundred and tenth year. Not everyone can boast of one hundred and ten years of service. As for the Freshman—well, we were all Freshmen once.

Sept. 8—Y. M. and Y. W. annual wiener roast. Menu: wieners, apples, doughnuts, and get-acquainted games.

Sept. 9—First "roll-call day." "Y" mixer held in Pearson's Hall, an annual event long remembered by students and faculty. Hidden dramatic talent is brought to light in "animated proverbs," "Eat, drink and be merry" winning first place. D. Donham and M. Miller starring in "Better to have loved and lost."

Sept. 10—The President's Reception adds dignity to McKendree's opening week, its purpose being "to bring the students and faculty together that their acquaintance may be something to be remembered." (McK. Review.)

Sept. 12—Professor Watts sponsors first of a series of sociological field trips. "Sociologists" visit the Owen-Illinois Glass Works in St. Louis. Sociology department inaugurates a plan for the building up of a special library fund for books in the field of sociology.

Sept. 13—Sigma Beta Rho and the men's venerable Literary Societies of the campus hold their first meetings of the year. No danger of "All work and no play" producing dull McKendreens.

Sept. 21—College Glee Clubs hold their first rehearsal, the prelude of a musical year under "Mom" Harper's capable direction. Some of the songsters are dismissed early for the Phi Lambda Tau back-to-nature hayride. It's fun to travel in a wagon—if you don't care when you get where you're going.

Sept. 23—First house meeting in Clark Hall. By the new rules, there ought to be a full crop of wings among the "angels".

Sept. 24—Yearly banquet held at Benton in connection with the Annual Southern M. E. Conference, Dr. Yost serving as toastmaster and several students appearing on the program.

Sept. 27—Members of Little Theatre attend the production of "Tovarich" at the American Theatre in St. Louis. First Clio Open Session held. Eats? You bet! With the men in the majority.

Sept. 29—The Bachelors stage one of their famous wiener roasts at Fern Hill.

Sept. 30—Freshman initiation period begins with performances on the student chapel programs. High points of the program: Scud's account of his lonely church-step vigil, and the amateur drama which brings results.

October...

As the magic ball spins slowly

In a lazy, hazy motion,—grasp the skeins,

Blue and gold, for sunny weather,

And October's silver-gray for misty rains.

Oct. 1—Professor Watts conducts field trip to Cahokia Mounds and Swift Packing Plant. Let's go vegetarian!

Oct. 3—Epworth League fellowship hour held at the Methodist Church. Games and refreshments enjoyed by a large group of students.

Oct. 7—Wayne Bise elected president of the Senior Class.

Oct. 11—Plato holds its first Open Session program, and Sigma Zeta, its first meeting of the year.

Oct. 21—Hobos reign supreme for a day. Roy J. Griebel as the Old Dutch Cleanser woman and Don Ward as a winsome college lassy play leading roles in the day's activities. The decapitated form of the late Christopher Bean appears at the Chapel program. After chapel the "hobos" hold a pep session downtown, long to be remembered by all present.

Oct. 23—Homecoming, with its class rush, Alumni meeting, reunions, and a victorious football game, with Gerry Gibson reigning as queen. Last but not least, the mystery of the late Christopher Bean is solved at the Homecoming play.

Oct. 25—Waggoner Science Society holds its public program under the auspices of the Geology department.

Oct. 27—Ghosts walk in the form of Hallowe'en scavengers, under the leadership of the Y.M. and Y.W. Two ghosts in the persons of Dr. and Mrs. Spencer appear from the general direction of the cemetery, and two friendly "little red devils" grace the evening.

November...

*Now the darker skeins are drifting,
And these sober-colored threads we must not lose,
For the gay ones seem much brighter
In their contrast with November's somber hues.*

Nov. 1—All having studied like good fellows, nine weeks exams provide a pleasant diversion from the usual routine—or do they?

Nov. 6—A.M.O. fraternity holds an informal house party at the home of Bill Otwell in Belleville. The Social Science Department sponsors a benefit tea—for the growing library fund.

Nov. 13—Alpha Psi Omega celebrates its tenth anniversary with a reception, a banquet, and a group of three plays given in the Chapel in which dramatic talent of students and alumni is demonstrated.

Nov. 14—Meeting of the East Side McKendree Alumni Association in E. St. Louis.

Nov. 17—Thirty-four names appear on the honor roll. Need we say more?

Nov. 18—The library becomes a "tea room for a day" with tapers, silver, and china, not to speak of colorful book displays, in celebration of National Book Week. Professor Harly talks on "Books". Dr. Yost gives an address over radio station WGN on "Building Religion into Life".

Nov. 26—Bise, Randall and Isselhardt are awarded places on International News Service All-Conference team.

Nov. 29—Back to work again. "Did you have turkey?"

December...

*Gleaming white the threads are drifting,
And the iridescent green and crimson lights
Shine in gay December's colors,
Like the starlight in the snow on winter nights.*

Dec. 3—International Debate is held in the chapel between McK. debate team, represented by John Oppitz and Clayton Campbell, and the Anglo-Scottish team, represented by H. H. Munro and David Sealand-Jones. This is the first debate of its kind to be held on McKendree's campus.

Dec. 6—Science Club holds its second program, under the sponsorship of the Biology department. These programs are unique in character.

Dec. 8—Y.W. Christmas program is held in Clark Hall. Mary Blanche reads us a Christmas story as we gather in the firelight.

Dec. 10—Phi Lambda Tau sees "Gay Blades", an ice carnival, at the Arena in St. Louis, under the sponsorship of Dr. Steckman. Faculty Dames have a Christmas party—with Santa Claus 'n everything.

Calendar

Dec. 13—"Angels" hold their annual Christmas party in Clark Hall—with toys which are later sent to the Orphanage at Mt. Vernon. Clara Frances demonstrates her ability in the leadership of games; "Blackie," the cat, makes a startling entrance.

Dec. 15—Y. M. and Y. W. have a Christmas party in Clark Hall, following a Christmas play in the Chapel. Games, pop-corn, and apples furnish entertainment for the evening's fun.

Dec. 17—Students leave for Christmas vacation, "while visions of sugar-plums dance in their heads."

Dec. 25—Sigma Beta Rho quartet broadcasts over KWK. We tune in from here, there, and yonder. W. Friederich, M. James, E. Bauer, and C. Hortin chosen for College "Who's Who".

January...

Grasp the threads of January

Spun upon a winter morning clear and cold

By Jack Frost, the sprite who traces

Wonderlands with frosty fingers sharp and bold.

Jan. 3—Another Christmas vacation gone, and we still believe in Santa Claus.

Jan. 9—Miss Rose Terlin of Geneva, Switzerland, speaks on "International Affairs" at the M. E. Church.

Jan. 10—Intramural basketball season opens. Angels allowed to stay out until two minutes past ten to see the finish.

Jan. 11—Football banquet held in Pearson's Hall. Randall and Doernier elected co-captains for next year. Wayne Bise is selected as the team's most valuable player.

Jan. 14—McK. debate team meets Blackburn at Carlinville.

Jan. 15—Bachelors have a party at the Locust Hills Country Club. The evening is a complete success, what with imported music 'n' all.

Jan. 17-22—The bitter with the sweet—Semester exams. All resolutions not to cram thrown to the famous "four winds".

Jan. 22—Wedding bells ring for Walter Pruett and Beulah Jones of Kimmunity.

Jan. 23—E. St. Louis Area Youth Conference held on the campus. The sight of high school "youngsters" brings back memories, not so far removed.

Jan. 24—Registration for second semester. Turn the new leaf—"I hereby resolve to do better this semester."

Jan. 26—McK. Players begin their tours. Like knights of old, they find many and varied adventures in their tour of Southern Illinois. It's all fun, even swallowing pins and forgetting to pull curtains.

Jan. 28—A.M.O.'s hold their annual mid-semester banquet at Hotel Belleville.

Jan. 29—More wedding bells—this time for Marie Block and Jim Connett.

February...

Short, drab threads of brown and yellow,

Clinging leaves, and fields heven by the wind's sharp knife;

February's threads of death,

Wherein is cloaked the hidden miracle of life.

Feb. 5—Neighboring high schools are guests of McK. at Warrenton game. Afterward a frolic at the Country Club.

Feb. 9—McK. Players present "There Comes a Time", "Bird of Passage" and "Not Quite Such a Goose" in the chapel under the direction of Willard Friederich. McK.'s men's quartet—composed of the famous "four portly gentlemen"—makes its first public appearance.

Feb. 10—Sociology field trip to St. Louis Globe Democrat and Good Will Industries.

Feb. 13—Phi Lambda Tau rush tea at the home of Mrs. St. Clare Flint. Rushees are taken on a stormy trip to the imaginary isle of the "Tempest".

Feb. 14—Faculty members celebrate St. Valentine's day with a comic valentine box in the dining hall. Dignity—did you say?

Feb. 15—"Heart Sister" supper, sponsored by the Y.W. at Prexy's mansion. By the valentine route each girl finds out who has been doing all those lovely things for her this week.

Feb. 19—Phi Lambda Tau holds second rush party, at the home of Mrs. Will Pfeiffer.

Feb. 20—The McK. chorus, resplendent in tuxes and aquamarine dresses—to say nothing of white carnations—makes its 1938 debut at the Lebanon M. E. Church.

Feb. 25—McK. group attends Wesley Commemoration meeting at Granite City Niedringhaus M. E. Church.

Feb. 27—McK. chorus sings at St. Paul's M. E. Church in East St. Louis. Might we say, "such harmony is in immortal souls."

Feb. 28—Mid-year recital given by McKendree Fine Arts department under the direction of Prof. Kleinschmidt, Miss Harper, and Miss Thomas. Harold Hertenstein awarded the Bachelor scholarship cup for the highest scholastic average in the fraternity during the first semester. His name is added to the "immortals."

March...

Misty green threads now are drifting,

Threads of promise that foretell the coming spring,

Threads from daffodils' gold cups,

And silver threads of March's prancing winds that sing.

March 1—Girls' quartet appears before Woman's Club at Staunton during the afternoon. McK. chorus travels to New Baden the same evening for a program.

March 2—The famous "Professor Quizz" makes a second appearance—this time at a combined "Y" meeting. Student and faculty alike are put through their paces by the relentless prof.

Mar. 3—Debate team meets Illinois Wesleyan team at Bloomington and Normal U. at Normal on an interesting Northern tour.

Mar. 4—Debate team meets Wheaton College at Wheaton.

Mar. 5—J. Oppitz and C. Campbell debate over radio station WJJD, Chicago.

Mar. 10—Girls' quartet sings at Literary Club meeting in East St. Louis. These four young ladies seem to be much in demand this year.

Mar. 13—Men's Glee Club makes its first separate appearance at Pinckneyville and Nashville, via the Lebanon bus. Rainy weather, but "singing in the rain" isn't so bad.

March 15—Again Mary Blanche is to assume queenly honors, having reigned as last year's W. A. A. Queen of the Gym Circus. This time it is as May Queen.

Mar. 16—Y. M. gives St. Patrick's Eve party in the Dining Hall. Dramatic talent is displayed in impromptu pantomime. "Study Racket Methods Exposed as R-Man Conducts Investigation."—(McK. Review).

March 18—Sociology students visit the St. Louis police department and Shell Refinery.

Mar. 22—Myron Carlisle, baritone soloist, presents recital in the Chapel, accompanied by Betty Schatz.

Mar. 23—"Bing" Bohm wins the ping-pong tournament after a hard-fought battle. "Wendy" Phillips wins second place.

Mar. 26—Bachelors hold party at Hotel Belleville to celebrate the end of exam-week. Pledges are honor guests.

Mar. 29—McKendree team debates St. Louis University. John Oppitz and Clayton Campbell uphold the affirmative.

Mar. 30—"Jane, the Queen," written and directed by Wil-lard Friederich, is presented in the College Chapel.

April...

Golden tints shine thru the crystal

As the skeins of April's colors drift along

Yellow from the crocus petals,

And a gold thread from the blue-bird's lilting song.

April 2—Phi Lambda Tau brings guests to the campus for their annual Home-Town Week-End.

Calendar

April 3—Beginning of two-weeks' pre-Easter services at the College M. E. Church.

April 5—Lucille Floetman and Betty Schatz present music recital in College Chapel.

April 6—McK. Review publishes an April Fool edition. Headline: "Profs Have Row in Dining Hall".

April 9—Play troupe presents W. Friederich's original play, "Unto Justice" at the Cape Girardeau Mid-Western Folk Drama Contest.

April 10—Fellowship Hour held by the Epworth League at the M. E. Church.

April 15—Beginning of Spring Vacation. It's been a long time this year between the advent of Santa Claus and the coming of the Easter Bunny.

April 25—Back to work again. The lure of spring on the campus has drawing powers.

April 29—Faculty Dames have a party at the home of Dr and Mrs. Baker.

April 30—Pi Kappa Delta banquet held at the Lincoln Hotel in Belleville.

May...

Rainbow colors, soft and shining,

Are the colors of the lovely month of May,

As she treads across the meadows

Dropping flowers as she passes on her way.

May 1—Girls' Glee Club makes its initial Sunday appearance.

May 4—Pearl Dick presents her recital in the Chapel.

May 5—The Play Production class gives two plays in the College Chapel.

May 7—A.M.O. banquet held at the St. Clair Country Club in Belleville.

May 9—Beginning of annual Campus Week, sponsored by Dr. Spencer and the Senior Class. Senior Class furnishes a chapel program and an afternoon is marked by the dedication of the senior tree and the May Fete.

May 11—Cho banquet in Pearson's Hall. The plan of the program follows the regular Clonian program form.

May 14—Bachelor banquet is held at the Congress Hotel in St. Louis.

May 21—Phi Lambda Tau banquet held at the Hotel Chase in St. Louis.

May 23—Beginning of final examinations. This marks the triumph of the Seniors.

May 26—Dorris oratorical contest is held.

May 27—Plato-Philo exhibition program is given.

May 28—Clio exhibition program is presented.

May 29—Baccalaureate service is held. The oratorio, "The Messiah", is presented under the direction of Miss Harper.

May 30—Recital is given in the College Chapel by the Fine Arts Department.

May 31—Meeting of Joint Board of the College. Alumni dinner in Pearson's Hall.

June...

All the warmth of light and color

Blends into the last bright skin of shining hues,—

Light, and life, and love, and dreams

Which June presents—and you may have them if you choose.

June 1—Commencement.

McKendree _____ OF NINETEEN

McKendree Players

ORGANIZED

In 1936 under the sponsorship of Willard Friederich with five players, later enlarged to seven.

PURPOSE

To bring drama to audiences of Southern Illinois, to advertise the college, to afford travelling repertoire experience to the players themselves and to experiment with new plays and audience reactions.

PLAYS

The first six were written by Willard Friederich: "She Climbs Trees", "Again We Fight", "Road to Heaven", "There Comes a Time", "Bird of Passage", "Unto Justice". The seventh play is one of Elizabeth Gale's: "Not Such a Goose".

PLAYERS

Betty Phillips, Madge Davis, Georgia Rush, Helen Handel, Harold Shipp, Clayton Campbell, and Willard Friederich.

CAPE GIRARDEAU TOURNAMENT

Each year the Players sponsor McKendree's entry in the National Folk Drama Tournament at Cape Girardeau. This year the entry, "Unto Justice", by Willard Friederich, received the first prize of $50.00 in the play writing contest. Its presentation, April 9, 1938, included the following cast:

Lisbeth Wilson, mountaineer woman.....	Betty Phillips
Birdie Wilson, her niece.....	Helen Handel
Jamie Wilson, her son.....	Willard Friederich
Lige Peters, her neighbor.....	Fred Doerner
Maw Munsen, the "yarb woman".....	Clara Frances Boyd

For the third successive year, McKendree received the acting honors of the Tournament when Miss Boyd was given the gold cup for Degree of Special Distinction Acting; Miss Phillips for Degree of Excellent Acting; and Doerner and Friederich tied for Degree of Superior Acting.

The play as a whole was awarded Degree of Excellence in performance.

Debate Squad

Members of this year's debate team travelled some two thousand miles, through three states, to engage in thirty forensic battles. At the National Pi Kappa Delta Convention in Topeka, Kansas, McKendree defeated Morningside, Sioux Falls, Greeley Teachers, Montana State, Kirksville Teachers, and Michigan State, losing to Maryville and St. Thomas. The local debaters received a rating of "Excellent", second highest honor given to any of the 104 teams participating.

Three members of the squad made a five-day trip into Northern Illinois for encounters with James Millikin, Illinois Wesleyan, Illinois Normal, DeKalb Teachers, and Wheaton College. John Oppitz and Clayton Campbell engaged in an exhibition debate over radio station WJJD, Chicago, on the question, "Resolved, that war is the midwife of progress."

The other schools which McKendree met in debate this year were St. Louis University, S.I.N.U., Cape Girardeau Teachers, Blackburn, and The Principia. The Pi Kappa Delta question, "Resolved, that the NLRB should be empowered to enforce the arbitration of all industrial disputes," was used throughout the season.

The only veterans on the team were Clayton Campbell and John Oppitz, both of whom were seniors with three years of previous debate experience. Isabel Shaffer, Dorothy Dausman, Ruth Schmedake and Marvin Butler were the newcomers to the squad.

Back Row—M. Butler, C. Campbell, B. Garvin, W. Martin, Professor Hardy.
Front Row—J. Oppitz, R. Schmedake, I. Shaffer, M. Collins, Miss Thomas.

May Queen

MARY BLANCHE WOLFE
Lebanon

*"You must wake and call me early,
Call me early, mother dear;
Tomorrow'll be the happiest time
Of all the glad New-Year;
Of all the glad New-Year, mother,
The maddest, merriest day;
For I'm to be Queen o' the May, mother,
I'm to be Queen o' the May."*

Mary Blanche is an active Clonian, an ardent lover of sports and greatly interested in speech and dramatics. Her popularity on the campus is evidenced by her election as "Queen o' the May."

Helen Handel of East St. Louis served as Maid-of-Honor. Phyllis Barnhart, Myra Jeanes, Adelyn Martin, and Gwendolyn Yost were the Queen's attendants.

ELECTRICITY SENDS ITS BOLT INTO THE SCHOOL ANNUAL FIELD

Just like a flash of lightning . . . CENTRAL'S ELECTROLYTICALLY ETCHED halftones are winning friends. Staff members as well as printers quickly grasp the advantages they offer.

Your copy is faithfully reproduced on copper, assuring perfect printing reproduction, because the dots are DEEP, CLEAN AND SMOOTH, insuring less "wash up" on the press.

On all future engraving orders, insist on CENTRAL ELECTROLYTICALLY ETCHED PLATES.

You pay no more for these better halftones.
